Computer Service Catalog

Computer Software Training - $45/hr

What is this service?

Custom training sessions for, new or old, software commonly used at your facility. Regularly scheduled courses can be arranged to support software specific requirements.

What is included?

- Course Selection
- Schedule posting
- Training room management
- Arranging custom training courses
- Curriculum development
- Student satisfaction surveying

What should you expect?

All students will be equipped with the required knowledge and skills to enable effective use of computer software and programs needed and related to facility standards.